News of Women's Clubs---Social Affairs of Note

Miss Lois E. Campbell

Clubs of the New York City Federation are expected to be enrolled 100 per cent in the Sixth Annual Roll Call of the American Red Cross. according to Mrs. Louis Ralston, chairman of the Federated Clubs Division of the Roll Call. Special meetings have been called by a number of club presidents. Red Cross has been added as a feature to several club

The Ray Current Events Club, of which Mrs. Jack W. Loeb is president, was the first to report its membership 100 per cent enrolled in the Red Cross. The Theater Assembly, Mrs. J. Christopher Marks president, the Eclectic Club, Mrs. George Maynard Clyde president, the Eclectic Club, Mrs. Albert Canfield Bage president, the Life as a Fine Art Club, Mrs. Mildred Manley Easton president, the Rubenstein Club, Mrs. William Rogers Chapman president, the Beethoven Society, Mme. Aida Taninia Tagliavia president, the Government Club, Mrs. George Owens president. The Ray Current Events Club, of which Mrs. Jack W. Loeb is presi-Tagliavia president, the Government Club, Mrs. George Owens president, and Sorosis, Caroline G. Childs president, have all given splendid co-

An attractive program of vocal and plane music under the direction of hiss Florence Robrecht has been arranged. At the guests of honor table will be Mrs. William Webster Miller, Mrs. Shariott and Miss Bessie will be Mrs. William Webster Miller, Mrs. Clarence Burns, Mrs. Leonard L. Hill. Miss Louise Marie Contencin and Mrs. Fatrick Justin White president, Mrs. Roy Sherwood, Mrs. Frank E. Hill. Miss Louise Marie Contencin and Mrs. Fatrick Justin White president, will give an afternoon dance in the will give an afternoon dance in the will give an afternoon dance in the lallroom of Delmonico's on Friday, Dember 1, from 3 until 7 o'clock. Mrs. A. F. Hancock, chairman, announces the scholarship fund, the society recently having decided to sponsor the for the luncheon.

Mrs. Timethy, Martin O'Conner will be metertaining by a committee of host-decided to sponsor the poor will be made for their Christman of honor will be Mme. The guest of honor will be Mme. The guest of honor will be Mme. Marie-Cross Newhaus, who will speak on "Stabilizing the World Conditions." The will be served by the following host-esses: Mrs. Roy Sherwood, Mrs. Frank E. Hutchins, Mrs. A. Cossitt, the will give an afternoon dance in the table served by the following host-esses: Mrs. Gerson C. Coblins, Mrs. Roy Sherwood, Mrs. Roy Sherwood, Mrs. Frank E. Hutchins, Mrs. Roy Sherwood, Mrs

Mrs. Ruth Litt, who is a board member on the staff of the New York Leave of Business and Professional Women, Inc., sailed for Brazil on Noyember 15 to attend the formal opening of the United States building at the Brazil Exposition, going as the special representative of the New York league. Mrs. Litt will make an extensive trip through South America to gather data for the league on the progress of business and professional women of South America.

On the afternoon of Business Day, to-merrow, at the Waldorf, Mr. H. V. Kaltenborn. of "The Brooklyn Daily Fagle," will address the club on interas in features of the Brazil Centennial Tour from his point of view. Mr. C. A. J. Queck-Berner.

Mrs. Ruth Litt, who is a board members of the New York Leave of the New York Leave of the New York Leave of Business and Professional Women, Inc., sailed for Brazil on Noyember 15 to attend the formal opening the Card game given by the National Momen, Inc., sailed for Brazil Centenning of the day, will present the following program:

There were fifty tables of players at the day, will present the following program:

There were fifty tables of players at the day, will present the following program:

The wond of Macron H. Woodman, abrother of Miss Woodman, and the users will include Mr. Joseph Goorge you for Songs; a monologue by Mrs. Henry Arthur Shepherd; an address Greer and Mr. Jan-s C. Burns, also of Madison; Mr. H. Parks Greer and Mr. Jan-s C. Burns, also of Madison; Mr. H. Parks Greer and Mr. Jan-s C. Burns, also of Madison; Mr. H. Parks Greer and Mr. Jan-s C. Burns, also of Mr. George Kelly, and solos by Mme. Annie Clayton Jones.

The guests of honor will be Miss Frances Starr, Miss Florence Reed, Island Mrs. Island Mrs. George Leonard Fisher, the chairman of the day, will present the following program:

Miss A. Marguerite Hawkins in an of the day, will present the following program:

Miss A. Marguerite Hawkins in an other tenday. Will sology by Mrs. Channing Pollock, and Mr. George Kelly, and solos by Mme. Annie Cla

Kaltenborn, of "The Brooklyn Daily Ratenborn, of "The Brooklyn Daily Ragle," will address the club on interconducted by the society in a single features of the Brazil Centenborn for features of the Brazil Centenborn for features of the Brazil Centenborn for features of the Tuesday of the Tuesday

Under the auspices of the ways and means committee, Athene, Mrs. Katherine A. Mortin, president, and Miss Elizabeth Conran, chairman, will give a bridge and euchre in the East Room of the Walderf-Astoria to-morrow at 2 o'clock. There will be a souvenir for each table.

Among the members who will be chairmen of the various committees are Mrs. Adolph Weil. Mrs. A. W. Williams, Mrs. Neptune Smyth, Mrs. A her Lambert. Mrs. Edward Epstein, Mrs. Samuel F. Hollender, Mrs. Alonzo P. Dayton, with Mrs. Howard Clinton Russ at the door.

Clubs in City Expected to Give
Red Cross 100 Per Cent Answer

Special Meetings Called by Number of Presidents and Features Have Been Arranged for the Roll Call

Waldorf-Astoria under auspiecs of the New York State Society, U. S. Daughters of 1812. His subject will be "Romance of the Lest Crusade." When the war broke out Major Gilbert, resigning from "Pege-o'-My-Heart" company, joined the British army in England, was at the Somme, fought in Serbia, Bulgaria and Greece, ending with Allenby's army in Palestine. While Friday's lecture will not be a war lecture, it will recall much of the war interest by its connection with Old Testament history.

The Social Meeting of the Century Theater Club, Mrs. Harry H. Thomas president, will be held at the Hotel Commodore on November 24. at two c'clock. Subject: "Tragedy." The English artist, Penelope Wheeler, will protray the Greek tragedy "Medea" in costume. Julia V. Grilli will sing airs in keeping with the theme.

Members are requested to make note of change of the two Decamber meet-

The National Opera Club of America, Mme. Katharine von Klenner founder and president, presented two artists new to America, Thursday, held operation.

Yesterday was Red Cross Day at the entertainment given by the Rubenstein Club at the Waldorf-Astoria Mme Schumann-Heink sang her group of Schumann-Heink sang her group of songs with which she entertained the soldiers in camps during the war. The soldiers in camps during the war. The hall was decorated in Red Cross banners and posters and a collection was taken.

The first concert of the season was given by the Verdi Club, Mrs. Florence Koster Jenkins president, at the Macodowell Galleries on Wednesday evening. A large and representative gathering. A large and representative gathering was present, including two brides of the tolub, who were guests of honor. They were Mrs. Louis C. Naisawald and Mrs. Frank McCabe, chairman of the club, who were guests of honor. They were Mrs. Louis C. Naisawald and Mrs. Frank McCabe, chairman of the club, who were guests of honor. Verdi Club Julors. The program included two groups of compositions by an man, musical c.rector.

Alberti; the aria from "Romeo and Lulist" for soprane and a group of The Daughters of Pennsylvania in the north ballroom at the Waldorf. Astoria, under the received by Miss and Arthur Loesser, pianist. Mrs. William Rogers Club Julors. The program included two groups of compositions by and man, musical c.rector.

Alberti; the aria from "Romeo and Lulist" for soprane and a group of The Daughters of Pennsylvania in the north ballroom at the Waldorf. Astoria, and in the north ballroom at the Waldorf. Mrs. William Rogers Club Julos and the Waldorf. Master Lee Dubensky, a nine-year-old violin prodigy from Russia, gave De Beriot's "Concerto" accompanied by Emmy Kovacko and Sig. Carmine Decrease of honor were Miss Held none was general dancing in the ballroom until 6:30.

Among the guests of honor were Miss Held none was general dancing in the ballroom was general dancing in th

Next Club Juniors. The program included two groups of compositions by Choi is the west of the series from "Romeo and Juliet," for sograme and a group of Parks. Florence were given with viol in obbigato passed by Grido Wilstif, of the Meranalitation program Miss Josephine V 1. In a diagnosis of the series of the series of the welliam Penn Following the musical party of the Gorgam Miss Josephine V 1. In a diagnosis of the series of the series of the welliam Penn Following the musical party of the Gorgam Miss Josephine V 1. In a diagnosis of the series of the series of the welliam Penn Following the musical groups of the series A large luncheon will be given under the anspices of the Lyric Art Society at the Hotel Plaza on Thursday afternoon. Preceding the luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock. In the receiving line will be Mrs. Moore read a paper on "Women of the Revolution: An Appreciation"; Mrs. Moore read a paper on "Women of the Revolution: An Appreciation"; Mrs. Moore read a paper on "Women of the Revolution: An Appreciation"; Mrs. Moore read a paper on "Women of the Revolution: An Appreciation"; Mrs. Moser Shariott gave a word picture of Valley Forge as it is to-day, and Master Carl Abrogast, gave recitations.

An attractive program of vocal and music under the direction of the Misses Cropsey were assisted in entertaining by a committee of hostics Tlorence Robrecht has been aranged. At the guests of honor table ill be Mrs. William Webster Millor.

Cillor Misses Cropsey on the club as its monthly matinee, December 7. The club will hold its next social day. November 28, with Mrs. Walter H. Gahagan as chairman, the subject believe the club will be held at Hotel Astor, on December 5. It was a president, will hold a regular monthly meeting at the Waldorf-Astoria, Tuesday. The business moeting at 2:30 o'clock; program of vocal and master Carl Abrogast, gave recitations. The Misses Cropsey were assisted in entertaining by a committee of hostics. The Misses Cropsey were assisted in entertaining by a committee of hostics. The Misses Cropsey were assisted in entertaining by a committee of hostics. The Misses Cropsey were assisted in entertaining by a committee of hostics. The Misses Cropsey were assisted in entertaining by a committee of hostics. The Misses Cropsey were assisted in entertaining by a committee of hostics. The All of the Club will hold a regular monthly meeting at the club will hold a regular monthly meeting at the club will hold a regular monthly meeting at the club will hold a regular monthly meeting at the club will hold a regular monthly meeting at the club will be the club will be attended by the club as its monthly ma

Excise. Will address the lebb on intermodulated by the society in different conducted by the society of the society of

GIFTS OF EXCELLENCE

EXCEPTIONAL QUALITY always enhances the Character of a Gift. Our Offerings in

Distinctive French Siik Neckwear, Hosiery,

Handkerchiefs, House Robes, etc., provide a wide choice in Gifts of Supreme Excellence.

A. Sulka & Gompany

SHIRTMAKERS AND HABERDASHERS

512 FIFTH AVENUE, 43RD ST., NEW YORK

She will be married to Mr. George Rothwell Sheriff 2d, on December

16, in Washington. Miss Campbell is a daughter of Congressman and

A marriage of particular interest to society in the Oranges will take place Saturday, November 25, in Portsmouth, N. H., when Miss Priscilla Heffinger, of Portsmouth, will become the bride of Mr. Donald Speir Stewart, son of Rear Admiral Stewart, U. S. N., of Scotland Road, South Orange. Mrs. James Cogswell, sister of Miss Heffinger, will be the matron of honor and Lieutenant Commander Laurence Stewart, U. S. N., will be best man for his brother.

Both Mr. Stewart and the future Mrs. Stewart are exceptionally popular in the Oranges, the latter having returned recently to her Portsmouth home from an extended visit at the Stewart home. They plan to make their future home in South Orange.

Thanksgiving Eye, has been phase.

Thanksgiving Eve has been chosen by Miss Helen Woodman, daughter of former Judge Edward W. Woodman and Mrs. Woodman of 238 Snyder Street, Orange, as the date for her wedding to Mr. Daniel Francis Burns, of Madison. The ceremony will take place at 6 o'clock in St. John's Roman Catholic Church, Orange, and will be performed by the Rev. Bertram t. Conway, of the Paulist Order, an uncle of the bride. Miss Woodman will be attended by Miss Anna C. Burns, a cousin of Mr. Burns, as maid of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Agnes S. Woodman, a sister of the bride-elect; Miss Marion E. Coleman, of Orange; Miss Ailcen E. to the luncheon.

Mrs. Timothy Martin O'Connor will entertain the social committee of the Entre-Nons Club at her home, 511 west, it was the president, Mrs. P. J. Belle de Rivera, founder and president was the president, Mrs. P. J. Wember 28.

Mrs. Ruth Litt, who is a board member on the staff of the New York Levaue of Business and Professional Women, Inc., sailed for Brazill on Nowmen, Inc., sailed for Brazill on Nowmen Inc., sai

Miss Rachel Cutler, daughter of Mr. Miss Rachel Cutler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Cutler, of 135 Hamilton Street, East Orange, was married at 8 o'clock Wednesday night to Mr. George D. Utter, of Greenwood Lake, N. Y. The ceremony was performed in Grace. Episcopal Church, Orange, by the rector, the Rev. Dr. Charles Thomas Walklay.

as Waikley.

Mrs. William McLean, of Newark, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss

Mrs. Charles Hugh Dickson, jr., of 7
Webster Place, East Orange, has issued invitations for bridge party and tea to be given Tuesday at her home in honor of her sister, Mrs. Thomas Potter, who has returned from her wedding trip. Mr. and Mrs. Potter are passing a few days with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo Benedict, of 67 Harrison Street, East Orange, previous to taking possession of their new home at 425 Central Avenue. Orange. Orange, previous to taking possession of their new home at 425 Central Avenue, Orange.

Mr. Frederick Unge, of Stockholm, is the house guest of Mrs. J. Alfred Dixon, of 235 North Walnut Street,

Mr. and Mrs. C.

Mr. Balanda.

Rehearsals are being held for the English comedy "Just Like Judy," which will be presented by the dramatic corps of the Maplewood Country Club December 4 and 5 at the Bicalton School. The play is being coached by Mr. James Pennoyer.

Mrs. Walnut Street, East Crange.

Mr. and Mrs. George S. Jones, of Park Avenue, East Orange, have re-turned from a ten-day motor trip through New York State.

Mrs. Ben S. Nash, of Main Street, Orange, has returned from a visit with friends in Indiana.

Miss Helen Friedman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Friedman, of 910 South Eighteenth Street, Newark, will be one of the attendants at the wedding Thanksgiving Day of Miss Irene Vivian McGovern, daughter of Mrs. Thomas McGovern, of 6 Watson Avenue, East Orange, and Mrs. Frank O. Goebel, of Maywood. Miss McGovern gave a dinner party for her attendants last night at the Elks' clubhouse, 44 South Munn Avenue, East Orange.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Lockwood, of Raymond Avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Chauney, of Wyoming Avenue, South Orange, have returned from a short stay at Bay Head.

The Monday Topic Club will meet to-morrow at the home of the associate hostess, Mrs. Isaac Vance, of 341 Val-ley Road, West Orange. "The Music of America and American Composers" is to be the topic of the day. A social hour will follow.

Mrs. Henry R. Wiles, of 55 Hollywood Avenue, East Orange, and Mrs. S. C. Boyd, of Orange, are to be the hostesses when the Travelers' Club meets Friday, at the home of the former Members will read appears follows:

Miss Beth Pohle, of 57 Whittlesey Avenue, East Orange, will be hostess at her home Thursday for the Girls' Club of Hyde Park, East Orange.

Mrs. F. S. Stevenson, of 25 Hampton Terrace, East Orange, entertained the Southern Society of the Oranges Mon-day. Mrs. C. T. Martine, also of East Orange, assisted her as hostess.

Miss Lydia Record, of Belair, Md., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Allen M. Malone, of 32 North Arlington Avenue, East Orange.

One of the prettiest and most attractive girls who will make her bow to society in the Oranges this winter is Miss Lydia Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Davis, of Turrell Avenue, Sou'h Orange. Miss Davis's parents will give a dance in her honor Friday evening, December 22, at the Essex County Country Club.

Mis Frances Boyd, daughter of Mrs. John J. Boyd, of South Orange, will be "presented" some time this winter at a formal dance. Miss Boyd is at the present time one of the most popular girls in that exclusive "little set" which among others includes the Misses Anna and Janet Wallace, the twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Wallace, of Maplewood; Miss Jane Richman, debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Richman, of West Orange, and the Misses Eleanor Reynolds, Elsie Brewer and Lydia Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis B. Hower, of 175 High Street, Orange, and their sons, Varian and Preston, have departed for Florida for a stay of an indefinite period. They are making the trip by

Miss Beryl Tremper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Tremper, of Maplewood Avenue, Maplewood is spending a few Mrs. William Newton Bament, of 323 days as the guest of Mrs. Frank Lozier, of Hawthorne, N. .. Miss Tremper's

> MANUFACTURERS BY ROYAL WARRANT

WM. COULSON & SONS PURE LINENS OF FINEST QUALITY

HOLIDAY GIFTS Our Offerings in Exclusive Handkerchiefs, Exquisite Lace and Embroidered Table Sets, Doilies, Luncheon and Tea Cloths and Distinctive Embroidered Towels make appropriate Gifts of Superior Excellence not obtainable in the average store. Monogramming for Christmas should be ordered early.

PRICES MOST CONSERVATIVE

429 FIFTH AVENUE, NEW YORK BET. 38th AND 39th STREETS LONDON, ENGLAND BELFAST, IRELAND

Park Avenue, Orange, returned home yesterday from Asheville, N. C., where she has been for the last five weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. James D. Benham, of Lenox Avenue, East Orange, have returned from a short stay at Atlantic City.

marriage to Mr. Francis Baker Hague, she was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ainsworth J. Hague, of North Ninth Street, Newark, will take place in the Morrow Memorial Church, Maplewood, Thursday evening, December 7. A number of entertainments in honor of the prospective bride are being planned.

MOZART Juniors

Give Card Fe

Mrs. Arthur Purnell, of 179 North Maple Avenue, East Grange, who has been visiting relatives in Baltimore, has returned to her home.

Mrs. Burdette C. Orsor, of 26 Wilcox Place, East Orange, will be hostess at a meeting of her bridge club Tuesday. Mrs. William J. Harnish, of 23 Watson Avenue, East Orange, was hostess at the last meeting of the club.

Miss Dorothy Norton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence A. Norton, of Hartford Road, South Orange, will en-tertain at bridge Wednesday after-noon. Miss Norton recently returned to her home after spending a period of about a year in south Jersey.

A South Orange debutante-to-be is Miss Helen Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith 3d, of Scot.and Road, South Orange, who will be presented to society of the Oranges at a party to be given in her honor by her parents December 27.

Miss Gertrude Cannon, of Whittle-sey Avenue, East Orange, has returned from a short visit with friends at Port Jefferson.

Theoria Season Is Opened With a Birthday Party

Theoria, Mrs. Harold George Wood, president and founder, held its first meeting of the season at the Hotel Astor on Wednesday. Four hundred were present at luncheon, and later the were present at luncheon, and later the Forty-ninth Street Theater was filled almost to its capacity down stairs with the members and their guests. The play seen was "Whispering Wires." In the dining room the decorations were of the club colors, yellow, and at the dessert course the lights were lowered and to a march a long line of the club colors.

cisco. Present plans are to the effect that the wedding will take place in April.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Colie, who were married November 11, will be at home after December 1 at 100 Chest-nut Street, East Orange, Mrs. Colie before her marriage was Miss Emmlin Hall, of Flushing, L. I.

Mrs. J. B. Milne and Mr. Frederick Reinherr are in charge of arrangements for the first dance, November 24, in the series of three to be given at the West Orange High School for the benefit of the scholarship fund.

The main topic at the present time for the young as well as the not quite-so young members of the Wzshington Society of the Oranges is the "Junior Assembly Follies," to be presented by the boys and girls who compose the society's junior assembly, Tuesday evening, December 12, at the East Orange, High School. Mr. John R. Philling is her saw as her saw of the State Orange, will be hostess ling for the Grange R. Philling is her society's junior assembly, Tuesday evening, December 12, at the East Orange, High School. Mr. John R. Philling is her broad and to a march a long line of waiters marched into the room and around the tables, each bearing in his hands a birthday cake with three lighted candles. After an address from Mrs. Millon W. Blackmar, of 31 North Twenty-second Street, East Orange, has as her guests her sister, Mrs. A. B. Paul, of Buffalo, and the latter's daughter, Aline Paul. Among the street as of three to be given for Mrs. Paul during the series of three to be given for Mrs. Paul during the street of the first dance, November 24, in the series of three to be given for Mrs. Paul during the street of the first dance, November 24, in the series of three to be given for Mrs. Paul during the street of the first dance, November 24, in the series of three to be given for Mrs. Paul during the street of the first dance, November 24, in the series of three to be given for Mrs. Paul during the street of the first dance, November 24, in the series of three to be given for Mrs. Paul during the street of the first dance, closed amid a general voice of ap-

Give Card Fete At Hotel Asto

The members of the Juniors and last Monday at the Hotel Aster. T meet on the second Monday of Mrs. Alberta La Forge, of 142 Valley month. Miss Bessie Worthen Street Road, West Orange, will depart in the hear future for California, where she will remain until the close of the win-1.00ms. The other members of the

are Miss Grace Adelaide Hessies

English comedy "Just Like Judy," which will be presented by the dramatic corps of the Maplewood Country Club December 4 and 5 at the Ricaiton School. The play is being coached by Mr. James Pennoyer.

Mrs. Halsey C. Stafford, of Myrtic Avenue, Maplewood, has gone to Atlantic City for a short stay.

Mrs. W. F. Denel, of Mountain Avenue, Maplewood, was the hostess Wednesday afternoon at the meeting of the literature department of the Woman's Club of Maplewood. The main subject discussed was the "Life of Jane Austin." Mrs. George E. Low acted as leader.

Miss Dorothy Norton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence A. Norton, of Hartford Road, South Orange, will entertain at bridge Wednesday afternoon. Miss Norton recently returned to her home after spending a period of about a year in south Jersey.

Associate mer bers of the Junered Intention of the Junered of the Miss Grace Willenbre.

Associate mer bers of the Junered Intention of the Junered of chairman; Miss Eleanor G. B

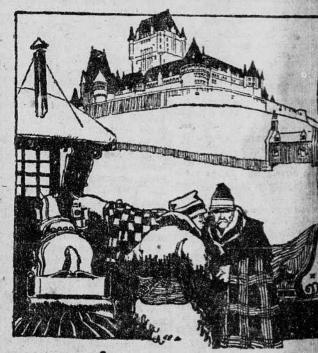

Welch and Miss Grace Willenbrek.
Associate merrbers of the Junior inet: Miss Marie C. Carr, Miss ginia Carr, Miss Irma G. Fenner,
Jean Banks Walsh and Miss Na
Benn Walsh Renn Walsh

Mrs. Fred Smith 3d, of Scotland Road, South Orange, who will be presented to society of the Oranges at a party to be given in her honor by her parents December 27.

Mrs. William W. Creasey, of 177 Harrison Street, East Orange, will be hostess at her home November 24 for the Friday Luncheon Club, of which she is a member.

Miss Gertrude Cannon, of Whittle-Miss Gertrude Mrs. Lemuel Densmore Books, Mrs. Lemuel Densmore Books, Mrs. T. Wright Hare, Mrs. T. Wright Hare, Mrs. T. Wright Hare, Mrs. T. Wright Hare, Mrs. A. Brahe, Mrs. Horace E. Keicham, Mrs. George E. Morrissey, Mrs. A. J. Frederick Mrs. Lemuel Densmore Books, Mrs. T. Wright Hare, Mrs. T. Wright Hare, Mrs. A. Brahe, Mrs. Harvick Mrs. A. Brahe, Mrs. Raymond Daparder, Mrs. T. Wright Hare, Mrs. A. Brahe, Mrs. Harvick Mrs. A. Brahe, Mrs. Raymond Daparder, Mrs. T. Wright Hare, Mrs. A. Brahe, Mrs. Harvick Mrs. A. Brahe, Mrs. Harvick Mrs. A. Brahe, Mrs. Harvick Mrs. A. Brahe, Mrs. A. Bra for Quebec's Winter!

Soon, they'll be here again. Glorious snow and crystal ice. Bracing ozone and blazing sun. . . . Quebec offers new thrills in winter recreation.... So, swap your mashie for a toboggan. Your bathing beaches for snowfields. . . . Come up any time from Christmas to March first You'll find Dufferin Terrace a roaring toboggan slide. The band-park a skating rink. Citadel Hill a ski-jump. And the famous Chateau Frontenac a trystingplace for the accepted order of wintersportsters.... Plan now when you'll come. Let the Canadian Pacific Office arrange your trip. 44th Street and Madison Avenue, New York. Or, write Chateau Frontenac, Quebec, Canada.

CHATEAU

A CANADIAN PACIFIC HOTEL ATOP OLD QUESTI

The thirty-sixth season of the Robinstein Club. Mrs. William Rogers these me ings be conducted by the Chapman, president, was inaugurated yesterday at the Valdorf-Astoria. An artist's recital was given by Mme.

Ernestine Sanumenn-Heink, the eminent speaker Friday, November 24, at the

At the regular meeting held by the Society of New York State Women, Monday, Mrs. Wm F. Hessel, as chairman, presented an interesting program the Waidorf-Astoria, on Saturday, Nowhen Jean Brittain gave two recitations are the Chairman J. Thorne is the chairman interesting program of the Wednesday, Novel ber 25, at 2 P. M. Mrs. Stevenson J. Thorne is the chairman ing of the Wednesday Luncheon Club.

2 o'clock. There will be a souvenir for each table.

Many new members have been admitted, among whom are Mrs. John Schae'er, Mrs. William Camp, Mrs. Paul Worthington, Mrs. Harry Knight Miller and Mrs. George W. Washburn.

Among those who will have charge of the winter activities are Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Margaret E. Hamilton, first vice-president; Mrs. Helena L. Reh' ass, thir's vice-president; Mrs. Helena L. Reh' ass, thir's vice-president; Mrs. Helena L. Reh' ass, thir's vice-president; Mrs. Frank K. Brewster, treasurer; Mrs. Jonathan Deyo, recording secretary: Mrs. Florence Hamilton, corresponding secretary and Mrs. George W. Beckel, president's aid.

Among the members who will be luncheon to be given in January by the Congress of States Societies.

The American speech department of the New rork City Federation of Women's Clubs aims to direct public attention to the necessity of better speech training in the school and in the home. It urges each club in the Fed-eration to devote at least one meeting

